Good to hear about your initial conversations with the Port and Rita's interest in Greener Cleanups! I'll be in touch after Oct 16 to follow up with you.

Thank you for the info Karen. When I spoke with Mark Withrow at the POLA, Rita Brenner was on the call as well, and when I pitched for this site as a candidate for greener cleanups, she mentioned that she had heard about this from you at a different site. I mentioned that for PCB cleanup sites, that you and Karen Irwin developed a more streamlined approach for identifying greener cleanups BMPs, and that this may be applied at the Wilmington Marine Services site. Although Mark Withrow (the PM for Wilmington at POLA) was a bit quiet on the phone during this discussion, Rita was quite enthusiastic, and very willing to discuss further – I took this as a good sign.

Hi Cynthia.

FYI, I've been working on and off with Shahid Mahmood of DTSC at a RCRA site in the Port of LA. Just letting you know in case there's any relevance for your work on PCB sites at the Port.

The site name is Roehl Disposal. Roehl was a tenant on a property at the Port, and now the Port is responsible for the cleanup. The Port of LA rep is Rita Brenner, and Shahid forwarded her my Greener Cleanups introductory presentation in July. Although Shahid and I thought we'd have a call with the Port of LA in August to discuss Greener Cleanups with them, so far we haven't had the call. It's on my to-do list to check in with Shahid on this.

See email chain below for more info.

Shahid –

We have reviewed the presentation. I will give you a call next week. I'm still uncertain what it means to be involved with this program or what it entails as far as commitment from the Port.

Thanks.

Rita
